

Sikh-Gurdwara San Jose Announces Scholarships for Teaching Credential and Broadcasting Journalism Students

Sikh Gurdwara San Jose plans to give up to 2-5 scholarships to students with primary residence in San Jose areas (county of Santa Clara and adjacent cities/area in Santa Cruz, Monterey, San Mateo, Contra Costa and San Benito counties). These scholarships are meant for those receiving full time education for getting the California Teaching Credentials or for a major in Broadcasting Journalism.

The Teaching Credentials scholarship winners after training as teachers will be expected to seek employment as teachers in a public or private school in the San Jose areas as well as volunteer their time at the Sikh-Gurdwara San Jose in education related activities. The scholarship amount is a generous $1000 per month for a period of up to two years.

The Broadcasting Journalism scholarships are meant for those majoring in TV/Radio broadcasting Journalism or pursuing a Masters degree in TV/Radio broadcasting journalism. The scholarship amount is a generous $500 per month for a period of up to four years for those pursuing a bachelor's degree or $1000 per month for up to a period of two years for those pursuing a Master's degree in broadcasting Journalism. The successful candidates, upon graduation are expected to serve in a mainstream TV/Radio channel in the USA and enhance image of Sikhs by exercising a high level of professional and ethical conduct.

The application and the eligibility criteria can be downloaded from Sanjosegurdwara.org under the announcements tab.

Alternately you can download the Sikh Gurdwara Sahib-San Jose App on your iphone or Anderoid phone and access the information under the “upcoming events”.

The completed application should be submitted on or before March 31, 2019 to
